

El Dorado County Fair Livestock RV/Camping Application

With limited space and more families choosing to camp at the fair, the following set of criteria will be considered when taking reservations. Please remember that the original intent of allowing camping was to accommodate those families that had quite a distance to drive to and from early in the morning and late at night.

The process and considerations will be as follows:

1. Applications must be received on or before the first Monday in April to be considered (any received after the first Monday in April will be considered based on space available).
2. The species showing animals that need more care early & late in the day or stay at fair all four days are considered first, leaving poultry, rabbits, dog, horse, llama and alpaca to the end of considerations.
3. The distance that exhibitors live from the fairgrounds.

Please fill out the following information and return on or before the first Monday in April to:

Register online by uploading on Livestock entry page, bring or mail to:
