RULES

- A. Rules, definitions, and judging procedure as prescribed in the latest edition of the Official Show Rules and the Standard of Perfection of the American Poultry Association, Inc., shall apply to all District and County Fair Poultry Shows, except in such instances where they are in conflict with the rules and regulations prescribed by the Department of Food and Agriculture.
- B. Show Birds will be shown and judged in the proper division and class for the breed, variety, age, and sex ONLY. If no class is offered, no awards may be made. Disqualified birds and those absent at the time of judging do not count when computing the number of exhibitors in the class.
- C. A judge may excuse a bird from the competition if it appears to be fatigued or out of condition, but the bird shall be counted as an entry.
- D. For all classes of standard-bred chickens, all birds must be identified by leg band conforming with the entry form on arrival at the show.
- E. No hens with chicks will be allowed.
- F. Exhibitors are limited to a total of 10 birds, except meat birds. They will be limited to 2 meat pens & 2 turkeys.
- G. All birds must be free from disease and external parasites, i.e., lice, mites, ticks, etc., and their nits. Any birds found to have any apparent disease, sickness, or parasites will be excused and removed from the fairgrounds and not returned. There will be no refund for diseased birds.
- H. Birds that are to remain at the Fair, must remain at the fair unless released by the Livestock Office.
- I. Birds must be owned by the exhibitor for 30 consecutive days.
- J. All primary member birds must be taken home after showmanship.
- K. Only one pen per exhibitor of Meat Birds will stay for auction.
- L. Exhibitors may only show showmanship with one bird: either Show Bird or Market Bird.
- M. Fair rules require you to show in conformation, to be allowed to show in showmanship and you must show in showmanship to sell your animal in the auction. You MUST show conformation AND showmanship to sell your bird.
- N. All Meat Pens sell at Auction. Exhibitors may only sell one pen & must have shown in that Showmanship class.
